The prosecution was conducted by County Attorney George W. Adair, assisted by George R. Gill.

Attorney L. W. Galbraith appeared for the defense.

The trial resulted in holding the accused in the sum of $50 each for a hearing in the Circuit Court.

Then J. W. Case, an East End grocer, was charged with receiving the stolen lucklets. &c., and he, too, was held in 850 for further trial.

Immediately upon the conviction of Case the game cock set up a lusty crow-ing, much to the discomfort of the Court and lawvers; and Attorney Galbraith always alert for information, suggested— "Wonder what that rooster is crowing one that will long be remembered by the men of this city. At 3 o'clock at the beautiful rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association will be celebrated the fourth anniversary of the organiza tion in this city. On Sunday, December 19th, 1892, the first meeting was held in G. A. R. Hall in Cox Building, and tomorrow's services will be in honor of that event. Mr. I. M. Lane will have the meeting in charge. The piano will be in the hands of Miss Katie Blatterman, while Mr. Frank Ellis will sing a solo. Rev. W. O. Cochrane will make an ap propriate address, and with several shert talks from some of the members the meeting will be one that will enable the male population of our city to spend ar hour in a most profitable manner. Every man and boy in this city and vicinity in vited, and a royal welcome awaits them.
